“Future Airport Parking Facility Needs”

You’re invited to participate in an interactive session geared toward IPI members working at airports. Moderated by Rick Decker, CAPP, Manager – Parking Operations of Metropolitan Airports Commission, this online ShopTalk will provide an opportunity for you to consider future airport parking facility needs in light of transportation network company impacts, vehicle ownership trends of millennials, impacts of electric vehicles, parking data and more. Please join us for this discussion on Wednesday, December 7 at 12:00 pm EST. Contact information of all participants will be shared with registrants following the call to allow for further networking.
